

Iberoamericà de Teatre Amateur

CALL OF PARTICIPATION

1st Ibero-American Amateur Theater Festival (FITA)

The Federation of Amateur Theater Groups of Catalonia (FGATC) is proud to present the first edition of FITA, an event designed to be the leading meeting point for the Ibero-American amateur theater scene. From December 5 to 7, 2026, the city of Tortosa will transform into a living laboratory for creation and artistic fellowship.

Location and Dates

- City: Tortosa (Baix Ebre).
- Dates: December 5 to 7, 2026.

More Than Theatre: A Comprehensive Program

FITA is not merely a showcase of performances; it is a dedicated space for learning and coexistence. The program will include:

- Debate Networks: Spaces for reflection on the current state of amateur theatre in the 21st century.
- Specialized Training: Intensive workshops led by industry professionals covering direction, playwriting, and body technique.
- Round Tables: Meetings with cultural managers and programmers from the Ibero-American sphere.
- After-Festival Space: An informal nightly meeting point to relax, share experiences, and network among companies in a relaxed atmosphere.

1. Who Can Apply?

- Legally constituted amateur theatre groups.
- Companies originating from the Iberian Peninsula and Latin American countries.
- Proposals that demonstrate a desire to participate actively in the debate and training spaces will be highly valued.

2. Registration and Deadlines

To become part of this unique experience, please consult the attached terms and conditions and submit your application before 15-07-2026.

3. Organizer's Commitment

The festival organization will provide:

- Accommodation and meals for the selected groups during the festival days.
 - Free access to all training sessions and round tables for company members.
 - Tickets to every show within the official program.

Organized by: Federation of Amateur Theatre Groups of Catalonia (FGATC) with the appointment of AITA-IATA in collaboration with the Honorable City Council of Tortosa.
